Under the terms of this Agreement, the University of Hawai’i - West O’ahu agrees to:

- Meet with UHMC faculty member who will serve as the faculty and/or administration on an annual, or as needed basis, to discuss potential and planned curricular changes which may require revisions to this agreement.
Under the terms of this Agreement, the University of Hawai‘i Maui College will ensure that each of these classes, regardless of instructor, will meet the University of Hawai‘i - West O‘ahu’s O-Focus hallmarks:

- O1. Each student will conduct or participate in a minimum of three oral communication assignments or a comparable amount of oral communication activity during the class. In addition, for lower division courses, at least 25% of the final grade for a 3-credit course will be a function of the student’s oral communication activities (30% for a 4-credit course; 40% for a 2-credit course; 65% for a 1-credit course); for upper division courses, at least 30% of the final grade for a 4-credit course will be a function of the student’s oral communication activities (40% for a 3-credit course; 60% for a 2-credit course; and 100% for a 1-credit course).

- O2. Each student will receive explicit training, in the context of the class, in oral communication concerns relevant to the assignment or activity.

- O3. Each student will receive specific feedback, critiquing, and grading of the oral communication assignments or activities from the instructor.

- O4. If instructor feedback primarily involves individual or paired students, enrollment will be limited to 20 students. If instructor feedback primarily involves groups of students, enrollment will be limited to 30 students.

- Meet with UHWO faculty member who will serve as the faculty and/or administration on an annual, or as needed basis, to discuss potential and planned curricular changes which may require revisions to this agreement.

This Articulation Agreement will remain in effective until Spring 2018. The terms of this agreement will be subject to review and renewal in Spring 2018, and may be continued, revised or discontinued with the consent of both parties.
