CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK.

The Conceptual Framework (CF) serves as a guide for fulfilling the UHWO Teacher Education Program vision of preparing highly qualified teachers for entry into the skilled workforce. The program recognizes the contributions of general education, content area studies, and professional studies to the preparation of educators. Three goals underlie the professional studies philosophy and objectives. Candidates for the Bachelor of Education degree in elementary education are committed to the following:

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Prerequisite: Admission to Professional Teacher Education (APTE)
Co-requisites: EDEE 426: Block 1 Practicum with Seminar & EDEE 422 Reading Methods.

Language Arts Methods focuses on theories and research-based practices in developmental approaches to teaching and learning in grades K-6. Emphasis is placed on methods of teaching and assessing the English Language Arts: oral language, listening, reading, writing, visualizing, and visually representing. Particular emphasis is placed on direct instruction in writing, within the context of the composing process. Teacher Candidates put literacy theory and research into practice via co-requisite Block 1 practicum with seminar and Reading Methods. This 3-credit course fulfills one upper division writing intensive (WI) graduation requirement.

Hybrid Course Contact Hour Requirements. Language Arts Methods (EDEE 424) is a hybrid, 3-credit course. Contact hours are distributed as follows: 1.5 hrs. face-to-face on Wednesdays; 1.5 online hours. For every contact hour, UHWO students are expected to spend 2 hours per week engaged in scholarly work associated with the course. Therefore, you should plan to devote a minimum of 6 hours per week outside of class to course requirements, for a grand total of 9 hours per week of attention to the course. Your Laulima online assignments include, but are not limited to, PowerPoint lectures, textbook readings, quizzes, interactive Blogs (uploaded to Laulima Clog link), and Reflections on Book Clubs. Additionally, your initial and final draft Case Study of a Struggling Literacy Learner will be uploaded at the Laulima assignment link, as well as reviewed during in-class Writers’ Workshops.
ACADEMIC INTEGRITY. Academic integrity is expected of every candidate. The guiding principle of academic integrity is that a student’s submitted work must be the student’s own.

Statement on Plagiarism. Copying the work of professional writers or other students and then turning it in as one’s own constitutes plagiarism and will not be tolerated. Plagiarism and cheating are serious offenses and, at the discretion of the instructor, may be punished by failure on the exam, paper, or project; failure in the course; and/or expulsion from the university.

Academic Honesty. The following unethical behaviors are expressly forbidden:
1. Collaborating with one or more students in order to: a) conduct research, write a research paper, response paper, unit of study, or lesson plan; b) write journal entries or video responses; c) develop portfolios or activity files; d) falsify attendance in class, during practicum, or at an educational event that is part of the course requirement.

2. Turning in for credit a duplicate or revised research paper, response paper, unit of study, lesson plan, portfolio, or journal that was used for credit in another class at UHWO or elsewhere.

3. Copying any portion of a lesson plan or activity directly from the Internet and turning it in as one's own, original work is a form of plagiarism and will not be tolerated. For example, Lesson Plans.com may be used only as a professional resource, and text from this or any other similar website may not be copied and turned in as one's original work.

4. Copying any portion of a professionally written trade book summary or annotation is also considered to be plagiarism. For example, summaries of books in print provided by Amazon.com should be used only as a professional resource and may not be copied and turned in as one's own work.

For further information on what is expected of UH-West O’ahu students, please refer to the student Academic Responsibilities and Student Code of Conduct sections (pp. 17-18) of the UHWO Student Handbook.

Students with Disabilities. You should speak with a counselor in Student Services or your instructor if a reasonable accommodation is needed for you to fully participate in all components of this course. If you question the appropriateness of an accommodation or wish to discuss the nature of a disability directly or exclusively a counselor in Student Services is available to answer any questions and to consult on access, disability and universal design.

TEXTBOOK & TRADEBOOKS

Literature for Children and Young Adolescents. You are required either to purchase or check out from the library a minimum of three books that are developmentally appropriate for K-6 grade-level students in your practicum (EDEE 426) setting. These books will be used during Fiction, Nonfiction, and Poetry Book Club activities.

NOTE: To earn full credit for each Book Club, you must bring a hard copy of your book selection to class on the scheduled day to share with peers. E-books are not acceptable. Failure to bring your book to Book Club will result in an automatic reduction of 25 out of 50 points possible. Additionally, failure to complete and upload on time the required Book Club Reflection will result in a grade of “0,” no exceptions.

ACCESS TO TECHNOLOGY

Laulima On-line Course Website. Access to a reliable computer and the Internet is required. You may be participating in interactive on-line discussions/Blogs via the course website on Laulima. All writing assignments will be submitted via the Laulima course website and returned to you electronically.

TaskStream Account. Prior to finals week, you will be required to upload to TaskStream your final draft Signature Assignment. Go to www.taskstream.com to register or renew your account. See TaskStream Registration information at the Resources link on the course Laulima website.

ACHIEVEMENT REQUIREMENTS

Readings

A. Textbook, Journal Article, & PowerPoint Readings
You are responsible for all information contained in the reading assignments. The assignment schedule indicates the chapters, articles, and/or PowerPoints, and dates on which they will be discussed and responded to during class. All readings are extremely important in that they will prepare you to understand the theoretical and practical issues related to teaching the English language arts in grades K-6.

Quizzes. You will be taking 14 online chapter quizzes, worth 10 points each. Completion of all chapter quizzes is mandatory. Failure to take a quiz on time will result in a grade of “0” on the quiz plus a 10-15% reduction in final points earned in the course. Do not skip taking a quiz.

B. Literature for Children and Young Adolescents
You will be participating in three (3) in-class Book Clubs, each focusing on a different genre: fiction, nonfiction, and poetry. In preparation for Book Club, you are required to select, read, and share a book that is developmentally appropriate for children in grades K-6. Detailed instructions for each Book Club will be provided in advance of the respective due dates.

Written Requirements (WI—64% of final grade)

To be submitted via Laulima & Taskstream:

Informal Writing Assignments: approximately 15 pages (Check-mark = credit)
• Blogs: Seven, one-paragraph Blogs written in response to prompts and posted by DUE dates on the Laulima course website. Blogs are uploaded to the Laulima Clogs link.

• All About Me: Original informal interest inventory, designed specifically for case study (1-3 pages)
• Book Club Preparations: Fact Sheets & Genre Writing Assignments (150 points)
  Minimum 3-4 pages per book club = 10-12 pages

Formal Writing Assignment: minimum 2 drafts; final draft, minimum 10 pages (100 points)
• Case Study of a Struggling Literacy Learner: Focus on Writing: Signature Assignment uploaded to Taskstream & Laulima

NOTE: Case study initial draft sections will be peer and instructor reviewed during in-class writers’ workshops, prior to submission of the final draft DUE on or before May 6, 5:00 pm.
Attendance

Good class attendance is essential to the learning process. I take role every class period. Candidates are expected to attend all sessions. More than one unexcused absence will lower your final grade one grade level – there are no exceptions. You are responsible for notifying the instructor about the reason for your absence, either prior to or afterwards. You are also responsible for obtaining information about class content missed due to an absence.

Electronic Devices

As a courtesy to peers and the instructor, turn off all cell phones prior to the start of class. Personal laptop computers or I-Pads may be used to take notes during class but may not be used for chatting, instant or text messaging, checking/sending e-mail, or surfing the Internet.

In-Class & Online Participation

Participation is essential to this course. Each person’s unique responses and insights help our class to reflect and grow in new ways. This course has been designed to be highly experiential. While participation styles will vary, whole class, small group, and online discussions are essential to the learning process. Active participation will require reading the text, articles, and children's books, as well as engaging in critical reflections that are integral to required online discussions. Reading, writing, and sharing helps create and sustain our community of learners.

Quizzes must be taken and writing assignments must be submitted ON TIME to earn points. Failure to take a quiz on time will result in a 20% reduction (per quiz) in the final points earned in the course.

Informal Writing Credit: Blogs, Book Club Fact Sheets & Genre Writing, Case Study Initial Drafts, & the All About Me Survey: All informal writing assignments are required and receive a “check-mark” indicating “credit.” Failure to complete these assignments on time will result in a 10-point deduction (from total points possible) for each missing assignment, no exceptions.
Attendance: 2 unexcused absences = Lowering of Final Grade by One Grade Level

Definition of unexcused absence: The candidate is absent from an entire class and provided no legitimate explanation to the instructor, either prior to or after, as to the reason for the absence.

Grading Scale:

- 351-390 = A
- 312-350 = B
- 273-311 = C
- 234-272 = D
- Below = F

Variations in points assigned, assignment re-submissions, or quiz re-takes will be determined at the instructor’s discretion; all extenuating circumstances will be dealt with on an individual basis.

VERY IMPORTANT---PLEASE NOTE:

ALL assignments are designed to prepare you to be a highly qualified elementary school teacher and, therefore, are required. Late assignments are not accepted. Further, skipping assignments (e.g., chapter quizzes) because you think loss of points will not hurt your grade is unacceptable and will result in lowering of the final grade by 20% per skipped assignment, no exceptions.

GRADES FIRST

During the spring 2015 semester, I will be participating in UHWO’s Grades First, a web-based system designed to “To increase student success, to enhance student support, to make a difference.” This online system enables me to provide early alerts and progress reports for candidates who might be struggling to keep up with and pass the course. For example, in the event that your attendance and active participation in on-campus and online course activities are not acceptable, and/or your grade in the course dips below a “C,” an early alert will be sent to you and to the Office of Student Services. Upon receipt of the alert, an academic advisor or counselor will then contact you to set up an appointment, in order to determine support services and an appropriate intervention, as indicated.

PRAXIS II

The Praxis II test must be taken and passed prior to enrolling in Student Teaching (EDEE 490 and EDEE 492). The Praxis II Subject Assessments test measures knowledge of specific subjects that K–12 educators will teach, as well as general and subject-specific teaching skills and knowledge. Individuals entering the teaching profession take the Praxis II tests as part of the teacher licensing process required by the State of Hawai‘i.

Candidates who have not yet completed the Elementary Education: Multiple Subjects (5031) test, have through June 30, 2015, to pass all four subtests. Scores will be accepted by the Hawai‘i Teacher Standards Board, provided the approved passing scores are met by that date. Passing scores for each subtest are:

- Reading and Language Arts Subtest (5032): 165
- Mathematics Subtest (5033): 164
- Social Studies Subject (5034): 155
- Science Subtest (5035): 159

Effective July 1, 2015: Test 5001*, Elementary Education: Multiple Subjects test is available now and will be the only option available after the effective date. Please note: Candidates cannot use a combination of 5031(above) and 5001(below) subtests. You must pass all four subtests from the 5031 version, by June 30, 2015, or all four subtests from the 5001 version.

*To pass the Elementary Education: Multiple Subjects (5001) test you must receive a passing score on each subtest. If you wish to take all four subtests (5002, 5003, 5004, 5005) at the same time, select Elementary Education: Multiple Subjects (5001) when registering. If you wish to take or retake an individual subtest, you may register to take just that subtest.

For more information about the Praxis II (i.e., test dates, test locations), visit the ETS website at: http://www.ets.org/praxis/about/praxisii/

FAQ: When should I take Praxis II? EDEE 424 candidates should immediately begin preparing for the exam, which covers content (not pedagogy/methods) in the core disciplines: Language Arts, Mathematics, Science, and Social Studies. Candidates are advised to take their Praxis II exams approximately two semesters prior to the anticipated student teaching semester. Study guides and other Praxis exam resources are located at the ETS.org website. The No‘eau Learning Center staff are also available to assist in preparing for the exam.
